The Stage Door Canteen theater hosts the lively dance revue, Let Freedom Swing!; the Victory Theater shows the Tom Hanks-produced, 4-D short film, Beyond All Boundaries.

"This isn't another World War II film," says museum president/CEO, Dr. Gordon H. Mueller. "This is a cinematic experience unavailable anywhere else in the world."

And here's a deal. Every Sunday from 1-4pm, local jazz bands like The Palmetto Bug Stomp provide the beat for free swing dancing lessons. Stop in before for brunch at the brand new American Sector restaurant run by celeb chef John Besh.

REPLUXE

PUNTACANA Resort & Club in the Dominican Republic features 33 beachfront Tortuga Bay suites designed by Oscar de la Renta.

"They're extremely classic," says Michael Frasier, marketing director. "Oscar really brought in a lot of natural elements to create the understated elegance." Close your eyes and imagine the Caribbean ideal. That's this place.

The rest of the 186-unit, 105-acre property includes completely refurbished designer rooms and suites as of October. The big breezy Beach Casitas are parked right on the sand amid hundreds of tall palms. There's North America's only Six Senses spa, the DR's prettiest restaurant and two waterfront golf courses—all literally five minutes from the airport.

Ben & Jerry's franchisees were just down to test out the brand new kiteboarding and windsurfing school. They did a Segway tour through the 1,500-acre ecological sanctuary, toured cigar factories and "enjoyed luxury in a low density environment," says Frasier.

Check out the Meeting Planner's Dream deal through summer: $199 pp, including meals, discounted spa/golf and free meeting rooms.
